

The Rebellion of 1837: Myths, Misinterpretations and Mysteries

Saturday, April 17th

9:30am to 3pm

$10 for non-Historical Society members

$7 for GHS members (light lunch provided)

During this day-long workshop, historian Chris Raible and Daryl Withrow will provide unique insight into the 1837 Rebellion of Upper Canada, the man behind the Rebellion, William Lyon Mackenzie, and the prisoners' boxes made by imprisoned rebels.

Space is limited, please reserve a seat in advance

Georgina Pioneer Village & Archives
26557 Civic Centre Road, Keswick
905-476-4301 ext 284
www.georginapioneervillage.ca

